

CNS-CMSW18

Wireless
rechargeable
mouse with silent
buttons

This stylish mouse will be a perfect tool for working in an office, coworking, or for off-site business meetings. Silent buttons allow you to concentrate on work without being distracted or disturbing others. The wear-resistant coating and compact dimensions allow you to carry it in a bag of any size. A large number of options for wired and wireless charging will allow you to avoid messy situations with a mouse suddenly shutting down. Just leave your mouse on a charger for your smartphone or a new Canyon mouse pad for your work break and get it charged. That's incredibly convenient! The mouse is comfortable for both the right and left hands. Convenience, simplicity and new technologies for comfortable and continuous work!
